2013 Daytona 500 Champion Event Hosted at Westgate Entertainment District

Free NASCAR Fan Event Celebrates Winner, Includes Live Q&A, Racing Displays& Show Cars

GLENDALE, Ariz. (Feb. 21, 2013) – NASCAR fans, start your engines! Hundreds of racing fans will descend on Westgate Entertainment District on Thursday, February 28 from 5:00 – 7:00pm to celebrate the 2013 Daytona 500 Champion during a free event hosted by Phoenix International Raceway.

Fans will have an opportunity to get up close and personal with the Daytona 500 winner as he or she takes the stage for a live Q&A. Special appearances will begin with Bryan Sperber, president of PIR, welcoming the crowd, SUBWAY spokesman Jared taking the stage, Miss Sprint Cup and veteran sportscaster Kevin McCabe recapping the race and the Daytona 500 Champion answering fan questions.

Westgate's Water Dance Plaza will transform into a racing fan fest with a live band, interactive racing displays and NASCAR show cars.

Following the event, the Daytona 500 Champion will head to the Phoenix Coyotes vs. Minnesota Wild hockey game at Jobing.com Arena and will be on-ice for the ceremonial puck drop.

"We are pleased to collaborate with PIR and NASCAR to host this great fan event, making the Westgate Entertainment District the entertainment and dining hub for racing enthusiasts," said Jeff Teetsel, development manager for Westgate.

Fans are encouraged to stay after the event and enjoy Westgate's more than 20 restaurants and entertainment venues like Yard House, Saddle Ranch, McFadden's, Kabuki Japanese Restaurant, Johnny Rockets, Which Wich, among many others.

Westgate is located at 6770 N. Sunrise Boulevard in Glendale. Ample and convenient parking is available. For more information about Westgate and a retailer directory, visit www.westgatecitycenter.com.
